COMPANY

We are a small digital media firm comprised of a talented pool of creative designers, media architects, editors, producers, artists, and even some storytellers. BROWNTOWN_ is located in Minneapolis, Minnesota, but our clients are from all over the country from New York to California to right here in the upper Midwest. Our cornerstone was mortared in place in 2004 when Sam Brown opened the doors for the first time. In five years, BROWNTOWN_ has become a leading digital media company providing creative and distinct business solutions.

EQUATION

This is the first equation ever written. Robert Record, who wrote this in the mid-16th century, is also credited with inventing the equality sign (=). At BROWNTOWN_ we find this to be an exceptional invention because, to us, it stands for your expectation. When you come to us with a bunch of thoughts, challenges, and ideas it becomes our job to take all of this and string it together, using our expertise and tools, into an equation that provides you with an exceptional solution.
